$79000

#100329

Great Investment Property & 5+ Acres of Gorgeous Views This beautiful parcel is located on the road up to Mt. Chirripo, which is the highest mountain in Costa Rica. Chirripo means "Land of the Eternal Waters". This property is a tranquil oasis surrounded by green hills and small farms. It has already been subdivided into 4 separately titled parcels but is being sold together for one great price. So there is no big expense to go to an attorney to subdivide. Sell the other 3 parcels and get yours plus more for free! There is one small typical Costa Rican house on the property. It could use some cosmetic work and would serve well for as modest accommodations or as temporary housing while you build your dream home. Currently the property is planted in coffee and has a variety of mature fruit trees in place.
